

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

IN CEAL'S HISTORY

2012

- Worked with the National Center for Health Statistics on the development and dissemination strategy for assisted living on its 2012 National Survey of Long Term Care Providers

2011

- Partnered with MED-PASS to create an infection control pocket guide written specifically for direct care staff
- Began a two-year collaborative research project with UNC-CH to identify person-centered attributes and indicators for assisted living

2010

- Published a White Paper entitled "Person-Centered Care in Assisted Living: An Informational Guide"
- Worked with the National Center for Health Statistics on the development and dissemination strategy of its National Survey of Residential Care Facilities

2009

- Celebrated CEAL's fifth anniversary with a reception honoring award winners from "Promoting Excellence in Assisted Living" awards program
- Partnered with the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists and MED-PASS to create a unique medication administration pocket guide for med techs

2008

- Hosted an invitational symposium on medication management in assisted living and published a White Paper on the proceedings
- Completed a 2-year collaborative research project with UNC-CH and published a manual about CBPR

2007

- Began work on an Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality effort to create a national consumer disclosure form

2006

- Convened a Quality Summit titled "Assisted Living: The Next Generation"
- Launched national Clearinghouse for the collection and dissemination of resources about all facets of assisted living

2005

- Launched CEAL's Web site — www.theCEAL.org
- Hosted a symposium on affordability and published a White Paper

2004

- CEAL incorporated as a non-profit organization
- Convened a Quality Summit entitled "Achieving Excellence"